“ Walter, my friend and brother. I am extremely sorry to hear the news of your passing. I have thought about you - probably 4,500,123 times since I flew the coup and landed in Philadelphia. I often told friends of mine some of the wildest stories that were hard to believe, true, joined at the hip, and forever laughingborn to be wild, riding motorcycles all over hell's half acre and back again. Between you, Kenny and I, I think we burned the candles at all ends while we scorched the roads of Bristol. I can never forget you, nor will I ever try. I could go on for another 5 days with the stories and fun we had. I do believe we broke every record of telling the Bristol police - tales of why your car was drunk, or why we were doing wheelies on our bikes from stop light to stop light at midnight. Well...that will never happen again. May the sun always be shining on your face and the Spring wind be at your back as you go on your way. Maybe we'll see each other on down the road. I love you man.

“ Sorry to hear about Walter. I have a lot of good memories from the old days sitting around the kitchen table drinking coffee. We had a lot of good times including our trip to Florida to get a jeep. Rest in peace old friend.

“ So sorry and what a shock. Walt was such a kind and gentle person I have such good memories roaming the hills in his jeep. No visit to Virginia will be the same without seeing Walt.
